

Cut along the lines to decorate your St. Patty's Day food table. After cutting each shape out, punch a hole at the top with your hole puncher. Grab your string to pull through each hole and tie around your condiment bottles. For pancakes, brownies, and other plate dishes, tape your label to a toothpick and place in the center of your finished dish.

Now, your guests are easily able to pick and choose what they want on their plate!

